OUR TEAM

Shri. Hanuman Mal Bengani - Founder /Partner

“ Started HDH/VPI in 1997 with a vision to provide well-engineered, high-quality Paper products to the Indian market at an affordable price. At a time when Indian manufacturing was not associated with many superior quality products, I wanted to set a benchmark and create a world-class Paper products. Today, I am happy and contented to see Vivek Packaging Industries being counted amongst the few successful ‘Make in India’ stories.”

Shri. Vimal Kumar Bengani - Partner

“VIVEK PACKAGING INDUSTRIES” was started with and continues to be driven by a singular vision: To create without compromise. We always strive to provide the best to our customers through quality products that are made possible by the Superior technology, state-of-the-art engineering and Good Quality raw materials. At VPI, we have always adhered to the best manufacturing practices, The products performance over the last 3 decades stands as testimony to our commitment to quality.”

Shri. Sumit Jain - Partner

“At Vivek Packaging Industries, the onus is always on innovation. Over the years, we have pushed ourselves to compete with ourselves first before competing with other products in the market. Today, many of VPI pioneering initiatives have been adopted across brands and have become a category norm. VPI exercises the strictest quality checks before the dispatch of any product. Multiple testing of various Papers, BOPP Films, Adhesives, Inks are done in our Labs and torture tests are standard norms before any consignment is declared fit for delivery. This non negligence approach to quality has helped us deliver products that have stood the test of time. This is the reason behind VPI reputation for making it one of the leading Manufacture of Paper Plates & Paper Lids in India and South Asian countries.”

Abhishek Bengani - Managing Member

Building on our “Family” legacy, we're proud to elevate the Paper plate & Lid's experience to new heights, blending tradition with innovation for a second generation of excellence. Continuing the proud tradition set by our Family, we're ushering in a new era of quality and innovation, propelling our business to unprecedented heights. Obviously everyone wants to be successful, but I want to be looked back on as being very innovative, very trusted and ethical, and ultimately making a big difference in the world. Finally, last but not the least, our employees are an integral part of our winning team.
